

Gloucestershire Area Quaker Meeting
Meeting for Learning

LEARNING TO LIVE WITH DYING

a spiritual and practical approach

Saturday 17TH March 2012

10am – 1.0pm

(stay for packed lunch social afterwards)

at Gloucester Friends Meeting House

Greyfriars, Southgate St, Gloucester GL1 1TS

Thinking about our own death is always hard.

This, the first of two half-day workshops*, will help us do this with a grounding in our Quaker faith. Its aim is that we will leave with a sense of relief, having made the job of organising our funeral a little less painful for the people that we love. The workshop headings are:

- 1 about my death
- 2 funeral planning: music, contacts, messages
- 3 leaving decisions in a helpful format
- 4 wills and power of attorney.

Workshop facilitator: Su Chard

Su has a ten year history of working locally as an independent celebrant.

She is also currently studying the social context of death and dying at the University of Bath's Centre for Death and Society.
